Rep. Coleman A. Young, from the 4th District, offered the following invocation:

“Father God we come before You today and we say thank You, Father God, for the wonderful opportunity for us to be state representatives, for the wonderful opportunity for us to represent liberty, equality and opportunity. Jesus, we know that there are some nay-sayers, we know that there are some doubters, we know that there are people out there that say that we are too divided, that we cannot do anything or we can’t get anything done. We know that with Your almighty power behind us, Father God, that we can form an invincible juggernaut, we can form a league of bipartisanship, we can create an omnipotent supernova that will radically transform and change everything it touches in Your name Father God. We know Jesus, that You said in Your word that the righteous shall not be forsaken, or begging for bread. No matter weather we agree or disagree on our issues, Father God, we know that we have justice on our side and we know that our cause is right. So we stand here united today in Your almighty power, Jesus. In Your power, Father God, that we know can heal the sick, that can make the blind see, that can make the lame talk, Father God. In Your holy name, Jesus, we know that there is nothing that we can’t do, no barrier that we can’t shatter through, no stranglehold we can’t destroy, no dragon we can’t slay, no deviant we can’t vanquish, Father God. And when it is all said and done, and when all the fiery arrows have been shot out of the sky and put out, Father God, and we remain standing, when the smoke of the battle has cleared, Father God, we know we will stand victorious and triumphant. Because as a great man once said, Father God, there is no one, no one who has ever regretted going out there and laying it all out in the field, exhausted but standing triumphant and victorious, Jesus. Because we know, Father God, that we believe in excellence in a higher cause and we will scratch, we will fight, we will crawl, we will do whatever necessary to make sure in the end that Your name reigns supreme. God bless You, thank You so much, Jesus, for this wonderful opportunity to be Your representatives. Amen.”

Rep. Angerer moved that Reps. Leland and Lemmons be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.

Rep. Angerer moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Reps. Angerer, Terry Brown, Corriveau, Crawford, Dean, Durhal, Ebli, Espinoza, Jackson, Robert Jones, Kandrevas, McDowell, Nerat, Roy Schmidt, Bettie Scott, Segal, Slavens, Smith, Stanley, Tlaib, Walsh and Young were named co-sponsors of the bill.

Reps. Schuitmaker and Paul Scott moved that their names be removed as co-sponsors of the bill.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Meekhof and Elsenheimer, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While I support the intent of this important legislation, it includes ambiguous language which will lead to future legal struggles. I supported an earlier attempt to amend this bill to outlaw bullying for any reason at all in any form, but the current bill fails to do this and fails to clearly define what bullying is, leading to confusion. I hope the Senate addresses my concerns and works hard to fix the holes in this legislation. However, until that point, I cannot support it.”

Rep. Angerer moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Motions and Resolutions

Rep. Byrnes offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 284.

A resolution to declare the week of May 16 through May 22, 2010, as National Public Works Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Public works infrastructure, facilities, and services are of vital importance to the health, safety, and well-being of the people of the state of Michigan; and

Whereas, These facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, including engineers and administrators, who represent state and local governments throughout the state; and

Whereas, These individuals design, build, operate, and maintain the transportation systems, water infrastructure, sewage and refuse disposal systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities that are vital to the citizens and communities of the state; and

Whereas, It is in the interest of the public for citizens and civic leaders to understand the role that public infrastructure plays in protecting the environment, improving public health and safety, contributing to economic vitality, and enhancing the quality of life of every community in the state of Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare the week of May 16 through May 22, 2010, as National Public Works Week in the state of Michigan. We recognize and celebrate the important contributions that public works professionals make every day to improve the public infrastructure and the communities that those professionals serve; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge citizens and communities throughout the state to join with the representatives of state government and the American Public Works Association in activities and ceremonies that are designed to pay tribute to the substantial contributions that public works professionals make to the state of Michigan and nation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
